September 2020 Programs

September 9, 7:20 AM Discussion on Racism by Lisa Wilkerson

Lisa will share her own personal experience with racism and discrimination. She will share her insights into the current cultural shifts, Black Lives Matter, and what all of us can do to support a unified community.

Lisa was born and raised in New Orleans, where she graduated pharmacy school at Xavier University of Louisiana, before moving to Chicago nearly 30 yrs. ago. After working for a few years as a traditional pharmacist, Lisa transitioned her career to the pharmaceutical industry where she has worked in a variety of roles for more than 25 yrs. During that time, she attended Loyola University to earn an MBA, a Master's Degree in Marketing and to start a family. She is the proud parent of two children, a rising college sophomore and a rising college freshman. Her community involvement during her years living in Lake County has included volunteering for multiple agencies and serving as a Board of Director member for non-profit organizations that focus on education and health.

September 16, 7:20 A.M., Great Lakes and the MWRD by Cameron Davis

Climate change impacts increase precipitation and flooding in the Great Lakes region and require strategies to plan for the future. This presentation will feature strategies MWRD uses to address impacts.

Cameron Davis was elected commissioner at the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago (MWRD), in what was one of the most unusual races in Illinois history. He is running for re-election in the upcoming March 17 primary.

From 2009 until 2017, he was President Obama's Great Lakes point person, coordinating the work of 11 federal departments and serving as the Administration's liaison to Capitol Hill in investing more than $2 billion under the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative.
